

Directions to
Parker B. Poe Theater
At Lincoln Academy
Academy Hill Road, Newcastle

From the North – U.S. Route 1

Exit left onto Business Route 1 into Damariscotta. About one half mile after passing McDonalds and Hannaford (on your left) is downtown Damariscotta. Pass through town, then over the small bridge that connects Damariscotta to Newcastle. Continue straight through the next intersection, and up the hill on Academy Hill Road. After the railroad tracks, the road bears right around a large red building, which is the Parker B. Poe Theater.

Parking for the theater is beyond the building on the right, and in the school parking lot up the hill, on the left. The entrance to the theater is through the double doors under the portico you see when first approaching the theater.

Handicap spaces and accessible entrance are available just as you round the building.
This theater is equipped with a handicap accessible restroom.

From the South – U.S. Route 1

Exit right onto Business Route 1. Proceed down the ramp to the blinking red light. At this light, take the immediate left and up Academy Hill Road. After the railroad tracks, the road bears right around a large red building, which is the Parker B. Poe Theater.

Parking for the theater is beyond the building on the right, and in the school parking lot up the hill, on the left. The entrance to the theater is through the double doors under the portico you see when first approaching the theater.

Handicap spaces and accessible entrance are available just as you round the building.
This theater is equipped with a handicap accessible restroom.